

1. Which one of the following is true about medical ethics?
 - A. Focuses primarily on issues arising out of the practice of law
 - B. It is learned by observing how senior physicians act
 - C. If a doctor is knowledgeable and skilful -ethics doesn't matter.
 - D. It does NOT decide what is morally right or wrong
 2. The main thing in modern medical ethics is:
 - A. Respect for patient autonomy and the fundamental principle of informed consent.
 - B. Does not depend on the choices we have
 - C. It only deals with practical activities
 - D. It teaches that a physician is responsible to patients only
 3. Medical ethics deals with
 - A. The choices a physician makes
 - B. The choices made by both clinicians and patients and the duties and obligations of Clinicians to their patients.
 - C. The choices of the society
 - D. The distribution of resources.
 4. Informed consent implies
 - A. Good respectful communication and listening to patients' preferences
 - B. Asking the patient to sign for treatment
 - C. Informing the patient about the outcome of the planned treatment
 - D. None of the above
 5. An ethical dilemma is solved considering
 - A. Its consequences only
 - B. Its consequences and application of principles
 - C. Its consequences, application of principles and respecting autonomy
 - D. None of the above
- Which moral consideration can sometimes override the principle of autonomy?
- A. When the patient is illiterate and cannot understand complex medical terms
 - B. When the patient is from a rural community and the procedure is expensive
 - C. When our choices potentially can harm others or endanger public health

NAME _____

ID NUMBER _____

D. When patients refuse treatment

7. Autonomy means

- A. self - determination with some degree of control by others
- B. self - determination and deciding for yourself
- C. Not having a moral right to choose and follow one's own plan of life and action
- D. Dependent on others for decisions because of lack of capacity

8. How do we show respect for autonomy of patients?

- A. by giving minimum information not to confuse patients
- B. seeking consent for medical treatment and procedures
- C. Physician makes final decisions irrespective of patient's choices
- D. Make final decisions based on family preferences

9. What are the necessary conditions for valid Informed consent?

- A. Information given should be as minimum as possible since patients will likely Refuse the procedure
- B. Diminished autonomy caused either by the illness or other factors
- C. The patients' capacity to understand and willingness to consent
- D. Minimum time given for explaining of complex procedures since patients will r Understand.

10. What are the possible obstacles that hinder the proper exercise of autonomy in decision making?

- A. Educated patient that does not have a medical background
- B. When explaining simple procedures to an adult
- C. Patients with diminished capacity, such as unconscious patients
- D. Understanding the language barriers of the patient and having a proper treatment Hand

11. Which of the following statements is correct?

- A. Informed consent is a onetime act
- B. Informed consent is not a risk management tool for an investigator
- C. Informed consent Acknowledges beneficence
- D. Informed consent is a legal document

2. The following are core elements of informed consent except
- A. material transfer agreement
 - B. voluntariness
 - C. decision making
 - D. understanding
13. Identify the wrong statement
- A. The assenting age varies with countries
 - B. The child can be enrolled in a study after getting assent from the child even if the parents do not permit
 - C. The child cannot be enrolled in a study unless parents permit even though He/she gives assent
 - D. Mentally ill patients may give assent prior to enrollment in a study
14. The information
- A. Can be long
 - B. Is not relevant for making decision
 - C. Is written only in English
 - D. Should be comprehensive
15. Consent renewal is needed if
- A. Study period is very short
 - B. The trial is conducted as per the approved protocol
 - C. New information is needed to be generated from the study
 - D. The data produced are promising
16. The purpose of medical ethical analysis guidelines includes all except?
- A. To give final solutions to all types of ethical dilemmas
 - B. to provide checklist to ensure completeness
 - C. Offering a frame work to identify difficult issues
 - D. Encourage teamwork to solve dilemma without bias and significant influence of Individual belief
 - E. Facilitate dialogue and cooperation among all stakeholders

NAME _____

ID NUMBER _____

17. All of the following characterize guidelines used for Ethical clinical analysis except

- A. Impartial
- B. Objective
- C. Complex
- D. Rational
- E. Consistent

18. Which of the following statement is true regarding in decision making process of Ethical dilemma?

- A. patient autonomy has to be respected irrespective of its mental capacity and legally Competency
- B. Country law or guideline has minimal role in analyzing ethical dilemmas
- C. Looking into how similar ethical dilemma resolved is not beneficial for decision Making
- D. Social and the cultural value of the individual has to be looked into decision Process
- E. Not necessary to look into the burden of other stakeholders except the individual.

19. Which of the following statement is /are correct?

- A. Patients' preference of treatment mainly related to ethical concept of respect for Patient autonomy.
- B. contextual features closely related to loyalty and fairness and may consider patients Religious and / or cultural values
- C. Quality of life for individual patient is best defined by the treating physician
- D. Ethical concept of beneficence and non-maleficence best addressed as physician Discussing the medical indication of an intervention
- E. All except C

20. Abayneh is 20 years old university student presented to the outpatient department with a Complaint of severe abdominal pain and vomiting of five hours' duration. The physician after asking About the problem, did physical exam, and ordered laboratory investigation; told him that he has Inflammation of the appendix, and if untreated urgently may cause severe complication such as Perforation and pus collection, and immediately called duty surgeon. The surgeon re-examined him Check the lab results and told him that the appendix needs to be removed. He disused about the procedure including anaesthesia, about possible complications, and outcome of the procedure. Abayneh agreed for the operation and signed the consent paper. In the process of Abayneh management both the primary physician and surgeon abided by which of ethical Principle/s

- A. Autonomy
- B. Non beneficence
- C. Beneficence
- D. Justice
- E. All except D

21. What is the clinical definition of death?

- A. Death is defined as the cessation of vital functions of the heart
- B. Cessation of breathing.
- C. Cessation of brain activity including the brain stem
- D. None of the above

22. In which condition do you consider withholding or withdrawing an intervention which allows? Death in a patient who is dying in few hours?

- A. Death is imminent and the potential treatment is 'futile'
- B. Treatment would be ineffective making life intolerable due to pain and suffering
- C. It is the patient's autonomous decision to withhold consent for a life-saving Intervention
- D. All of the above

23. What are the Specific challenges in end-of-life care to do Withholding and with drawing? Treatment?

- A. Difficulty in providing an accurate treatment
- B. When patient insists to continue treatment and the treating team agree
- C. An unnecessary and unequal distribution of resources in developed countries
- D. If an action requires the doctor to act against a professional code or law.

NAME _____

ID NUMBER _____

24. Communication with a child is dependent on a number of factors:-

- A. Age of the child and level of maturity
- B. Understanding of their illness and previous experience of death
- C. Cultural and behavioral states of the family
- D. A and b

25. Which of the following is true in decision making at end of life in children and infants

- A. Children who die should not be aggressively managed and investigated at the end Of life.
- B. Discussing death with a child is not difficult for both family and the treating team
- C. Palliative care may help at and of life but since it signals a loss of hope it will cause Depression in the child
- D. None of the above

26. A 5 year old child was admitted to the Department of Pediatrics Emergency ward with disseminated neuroblastoma to the lungs, spine and scalp and had severe anemia. A newborn was admitted at the same Time for hemolytic disease of the newborn and required immediate exchange transfusion. Their blood group was the same and there was only one unit of blood in the blood bank. Who should decide to give priority to one of these competing patients?

- A. The caring physician himself
- B. The Head of the Department of Pediatrics and Child Health
- C. The hospital director
- D. A hospital management committee should be formed for decision
- E. Share the one unit of blood among the two patients

27. Beneficence refers to actions that promote the wellbeing of patients in the medical context. In the Current medical practice in our situation; there are many situations when this principle is bridged and The patient is mistreated. What moral values are we lacking?

- A. Compassionate care
- B. Respect for patients
- C. Honesty
- D. Adequate experience
- E. A, B and C are correct

28. If you practice clinical medicine in resource limited settings like ours it is unavoidable to make decisions on who should get the best investigation and/or treatment? How would you decide to the best interest of the Patient?

- A. In accordance with the opinion of the patient/care taker
- B. In according to the law of the country
- C. Ask opinion of others
- D. According to your reference text book
- E. You are the undisputable decision maker

29. After an EPRDF take over in Ethiopia, a surgeon met an admitted patient who killed his brother during the Communist regime. The patient required an emergency tracheotomy by the surgeon for an upper airway Obstruction. The surgeon had his own priorities and wanted to delay the procedure of this patient. What would be the best principle to handle this patient?

- A. Report to the police that this patient had committed crime
- B. Discuss with other surgeons to handle this patient
- C. You are not obliged to save your enemy
- D. Treat first- come-first
- E. Refer him to other hospital

30. There are different opinions for the fair distribution of resources for patients in resource scarce situations. Which do you think is the best principle to follow?

- A. There should be a protocol open to be challenged
- B. We have to handle different situations in the same manner
- C. A health professional should be flexible in handling dilemmas but in a way that should not Undermine justice
- D. A health professional should be able to defend himself in the face of law
- E. All should be applied

31. Which of the following is the main purpose of counseling

- A. To make the patient compliant
- B. To empower the patient for decision making
- C. To make the patient adherent to treatment
- D. To increase physician trust

NAME _____

ID NUMBER _____

32. Which of the following statements is true of compassion
- A. Compassion can be learned by imitation
 - B. Compassion is showing interest to patient's problem
 - C. Compassion is understanding the patient's problem
 - D. Compassion is always natural
33. in the healing paradigm of care
- A. Patients plays the major role
 - B. Scientific knowledge predominates
 - C. The physician's role is treating
 - D. Intuition has no place
34. Choose the right combination
- A. Aristotle- the whole is the sum of its parts
 - B. Plato – compassion can be learned
 - C. Beresden – disease is a disorder of enzymatic interactions
 - D. Protagoras – wisdom can be taught
35. In Lucia Thornton's model of whole person care
- A. A person is a physical energy field
 - B. Spirituality is a bond of a person's parts
 - C. Spirituality emanates from the person's mind
 - D. Self-reflection originates from the emotional aspect of a person
36. In RH ethics, which one of the following is false?
- A. Very secret and private
 - B. Sensitive,
 - C. Issue mostly discussed in the family and community
 - D. There are many misconceptions and taboos
37. In a university teaching hospital, which one of the following interest takes priority?
- A. the patient
 - B. the research
 - C. the doctor
 - D. the community

38. Which one of the following 17 years old is not an emancipated minor?
- A. married
 - B. university student
 - C. pregnant
 - D. employed
39. Which of the following is in conflict when an HIV positive pregnant woman refuses to take HAART
- A. beneficence of mother and autonomy of fetus
 - B. justice for mother and beneficence of fetus
 - C. beneficence of mother and justice for the fetus
 - D. autonomy of mother and beneficence of the fetus
40. In Ethiopia, when a minor requests a safe abortion service who gives the informed consent
- A. the minor
 - B. the parent
 - C. the medical director
 - D. none
41. Mr Abebe 37 years old male patient with gunshot injury to the abdomen severely bleeding from every were Hgb of 5Gm% B/P 50/40 mmhg pulse 140/M weak peripheral the emergency physician evaluated his Condition considering as top emergency and transfused him with blood against the pre signed consent form Not to receive blood and its products Which of the following ethical principles is breached from the legal point of view in this case By the emergency treating physician?
- A. Beneficence
 - B. Justice
 - C. Non maleficence
 - D. Autonomy
 - E. None
42. Malpractice actually refers to any professional misconduct but its use in legal terms typically refers to Professional negligence to proof if the physician is negligent which one of the following elements is not used by plaintiff attorney to be successful during malpractice suit?
- A. Duty
 - B. Causation
 - C. Damages
 - D. Oath

NAME _____

E. None

ID NUMBER _____

43. Physician is expected to adhere to Standard of care by applying legal concepts to practice which includes all of the following except
- A. Maintaining confidentiality
 - B. Practicing within the scope of training and capabilities
 - C. Preparing and maintaining medical records
 - D. Recognizing professional credentialing criteria
 - E. None
44. The principal cause of suits against physician includes all except
- A. Poor rapport and poor communication
 - B. Unrealistic expectations
 - C. Poor quality of life
 - D. Greed and or litigious society
 - E. Patient injury
45. When physician who has been sued for malpractice suit is attending court proceedings as required He or she is expected to
- A. Answer all questions
 - B. Bring required documents to court and present them when requested
 - C. Speak loudly and fast in front of the court
 - D. Testifying without preparation.
 - E. All
46. Which of the following statement is not true about ethics and law?
- A. Ethics tell us what we should do, it may be subjective People do not always do what they Should Do, so laws are defined providing an objective standard of behavior.
 - B. Law is important because society needs a system of rules to maintain stability and peace.
 - C. Law is perfect than ethics.
 - D. Legislators and judges bring their own personal opinions on ethics to the lawmaking process.
 - E. None

NAME _____
47. Which of the following statements is TRUE?

ID NUMBER _____

- A. Compassion is the feeling of sympathy for a suffering patient
- B. Being compassionate is not only having deep sympathy and sorrow for the suffering of others But also have strong desire do whatever is possible to alleviate the suffering
- C. Care without compassion cannot be truly patient-centered
- D. B and C
- E. None of the Above

48. Which of the following are the benefits of being compassionate, respectful and caring health professional?

- A. Makes the patient relaxed and engaged in the treatment process
- B. Increases emotional and physical/functional healings
- C. Enhances quality care, decreased medical errors and lawsuits
- D. Helps to become good role models
- E. Enhances greater employee satisfaction and reduced employee burnout and turnover
- F. All of the above

49. On top Of having up-to-date knowledge, skill and attitude in medicine, physicians should have multiple roles Such as leader/manger, advocate for patients and the right causes in medical practice, communicator, and educator.

- A. TRUE
- B. FALSE

50. Which of the following are the Ethical foundation of the Medical Profession?

- A. Altruism
- B. Accountability
- C. Excellence: Physicians are obligated to make a commitment to life-long learning
- D. Duty: A physician should be available and responsive when "on call,"
- E. Honor and integrity: Physicians should be committed to being fair, truthful and Straight forward in their interactions with patients and the profession
- F. Respect for others: A physician should demonstrate respect for patients and their families, Other Physicians and team members, medical students, residents and fellows
- G. All of the above

56. One of the following is a modern approach towards a bioethical assessment
- A. Let right be done though the heavens may fall
 - B. The end justifies the means
 - C. To ask the woman question
 - D. None of the above
57. Women's' autonomy includes the following except: -
- A. The right to choose among indicated and reasonably available options
 - B. The right to receive any treatment the patient wants
 - C. The right to choose to have others involved in decision-making
 - D. All are correct
58. At this early stage being a Clinical Year 1 students, would you vow to yourselves to develop and live to These values, principles and standards throughout your professional life? (Bonus)
- A. Yes
 - B. No
 - C. Not sure