

On Telegram
@keleme_2013

Tru 1. Special needs education helps in designing interventions to help exceptional children.

false 2. During the era of Institution, persons with special needs had accepted as human beings.

false 3. Inclusive education is a process of addressing and responding to specific group needs.

true 4. The goal of inclusion is to create an inclusive society.

true5. An inclusive community or society leaves no one behind.

false 6. Special Needs Education does not require specially trained professionals,

A12. Which one deals with returning students with disabilities to the regular classroom from the segregated setting?

- A. Mainstreaming
- B. Segregation
- C. Inclusive education
- D. Early intervention

d 13. Which intervention strategy is helpful for children with hearing impairment?

- A. Increasing the participation of parents and teachers
- B. Using alternative communication methods
- C. Creating appropriate teaching environment
- D. All are correct answers

c14. Which one is not the focus of the system-based model?

- A. The child's problem emerges from the environment in which the child lives.
- B. The intervention should focus on the child and environment.
- C. The weakness and strength of the child is the focus area of analysis.
- D. The child, the environment, and the interplay of these two have significant effects on the child's overall development

d15. Which one is not the benefit of inclusive education?

- A. Improved friendships with the social environment
- B. Have increased academic outcomes
- C. Gain peer role models for academic, social, and behavior skills
- D. Enhance individualism within the learners

C16. Which one is not the reason (rational) to move towards inclusive education (IE)?

- A. It enhances the attainment of the goal of education for all.
- B. The number of students with special needs became diversified from time to time.
- C. Inclusive education had not promised to support innovative teaching techniques.
- D. It is cost-effective for families and the nation.

a17. Which one of the following is not the purpose of special needs education?

- A. It generates problems for exceptional children in the regular classroom.
- B. It helps children with mental and physical problems.
- C. It helps in designing interventions.
- D. It creates awareness about the problems of children with special needs.

b18. Let a child has a visual acuity of 20/70-20/200. Based on the legal description (definition), this child is stated as

- A. Blind
- B. Low vision
- C, Profoundly blind
- D. Severely blind

a19. The first three modern special schools in Ethiopia was established for

- A Children (Student) with visual impairment
- B children with hearing impairment
- C Children with mental retardation(Intellectual disabilities)
- D.children with disabilities get education in regular schools as thier peers

C20. Which one is the symptoms of hearing loss

- A.Best work in large group
- C. Louder or softer voice that is usual
- B. increasing the background noise
- D. Ned to sit far from the source of sound

b22. Which one is correct regarding children with hard of hearing ?

- A can learn through hearing
- c. Perception of sound is an easy task
- B. Have a different level of hearing ability
- D. Can not use residual hearing a 23. Which one is the possible congenital cause of hearing impairment!

- A. Hereditary problems
- C.otitis Media
- B. Accidents
- D Virus and bacteria infections

c25.Which one is not the symptom of visual impairment'!

- A. Eye discomfort
- C, usually facial expressions
- B. Difficulty in reading
- D. Holding reading materials at an appropriate distance

d 26. What is the primary problem of children with hearing impairments?

- A Speech and language
- C. Listening and speaking
- B. Perception of light

D. A and C

b27. Which one is the focus of educational definition regarding visual impairment?

A. Measuring visual acuity

C. Measuring Visual field

B The ability to use residual visuals for education

D. The ability to see distance d28. Which one is not the cause of the refractive error?

A. when the eye ball is too long

C. When the corneal is irregular

B. When the eyeball is too short

D. When the eyes move involuntarily

d29. Which conference or declaration imposes schools to accept all learners?

A. Convention on the Rights of Children

B. Education For All

c. Standard Rules on Equalization of Persons with Disabilities

D. Salamanca framework for Action

b30. Which historical development of special needs viewed individuals who differ from the majority in appearance seen as possessed by evil spirits?

A. The era of Institutions

C. Era of Public School

B. Early History

D Era of Special Classes